Postal Rate Revision: Concluded the consideration of H.R. 7927, to adjust postal rates, but deferred final disposition of the legislation to Wednesday upon a demand for the reading of the engrossed copy. Prior to this action, while in the Committee of the Whole, the Murray amendment supplying new text had been adopted by a voice vote. Several amendments to the Murray amendment were adopted that would—

Permit the mailing of Christmas cards as third-class mail during the period of December 15-25;

Increase the per-pound rate for controlled circulation magazines;

Increase the rate on third-class junk mail from 3 cents to 3½ cents; and

Exempt certain "within county of publication" newspapers.

Rejected amendments that sought to—

Retain present postal rate on newspapers and religious magazines;

Provide a new formula for limiting second-class postal subsidies;

Delete provisions regarding screening of Communist political propaganda;

Reduce proposed increase on children's magazines and other publications containing no advertising;

Define a third-class category for certain shopping news publications;

Allow patrons to refuse acceptance of third-class mail prior to its delivery; and

Delete provision increasing postal rate on first-class mail.

Pages 637-678

Quorum Call: During the proceedings of the House today one quorum call developed and it appears on page 637.

Program for Wednesday: Adjourned at 5:54 p.m. until Wednesday, January 24, at 12 o'clock noon, when the House will act on passage of H.R. 7927, to adjust postal rates.
